

cloud
theatre

The Cast

Cameron Gray

With a diverse collection of film and stage credits to his name, including iconic roles in George Orwell's 1984 and Les Misérables, Cameron most recently performed at the Oxford Playhouse. Previously working with the London Youth Theatre, Cameron made his stage debut at the iconic Cockpit Theatre in London. Cameron enjoys bringing both depth and insight to the roles he plays, with personality always being the foundation of any character coming to life.

Britney Simpson

Britney is from Devon in England, having recently graduated from University she is thrilled to be entering her professional career in the arts. Britney has been lucky enough to continue her studies internationally, including cities such New York, Gothenburg and Paris where she discovered her love for travel and performing is too strong to not pursue. Britney is super excited to be playing the role of Noodle in this year's musical adaptation of Willy Wonka.

Lara Newell

Lara is a multi-talented individual from London, UK. The daughter of mixed Turkish and Northern Irish parents, Newell remains closely in touch with her heritage and does not shy away from sharing her culture.

Alongside her ambition to perform, Newell attended the University of Leeds where she studied Psychology, and graduated in 2024. She is keen to transfer skills acquired from her degree and apply them when portraying different roles.